STONE TOWN & SPICES

Zanzibar is also known as "The Spice Island". In past centuries achieved fame and wealth thriving thanks to their business and became the capital of Oman. The visit of a plantation is certainly very interesting for the wide variety of spices and fruits grown there, including cloves, cinnamon, ginger, vanilla, lemongrass, saffron and curious fruits like Shoki Shoki. You may optionally also ask to visit a local wood carving workshop where they carve the traditional Swahili doors. Thereafter visit to the city of Stone Town (see above).

JOZANI FOREST, RED MONKEYS AND BUTTERFLIES

The protected forest of Jozani, Nature Reserve, covers an area of 10 square kilometers between Uzi Bay and Chwaka Bay on a bed of paleocorallo. Along its paths meet enormous specimens of Red Mahogany, palm oil, Pandanus Rabaiense whose stunning aerial roots serve as support of heavy plant and provide oxygen during the rainy season.

The main attraction of the forest is the Red Colobus Monkey, at risk of extinction, a species which is found only in Zanzibar.

Nearby is Zanzibar Butterfly Centre, the largest butterfly farm in East Africa and offers an alternative source of income for the inhabitants of rural communities.
